Yo G-P here.

More Kitsune Spirit. And this one was easy on the editing as well. Praise the lord. So, the chapter output should now increase thanks to our new translator. This time we got two new characters. Inugami is basically a dog version of our beloved kitsune youkai. Kamaitachi is some sort of flying weasel/hedgehog thing with sickles and claws. Crazy stuff. I didn't want to name these two guys dog and weasel and change Tanuki to raccoon to make it consistent. Sounds too dumb. Anyway, let's see if Tanuki's new scheme is going to work out. Tonight I got a bottle of Doppio Passo originating in the peninsula Salento. That's the stuff.

See ya soon.
